

Daniella Horton BSc (Hons) FCIArb Dipl ICA

Description of Current Status :

Honorary Secretary and Full Member of the LMAA

Qualifications :

- BSc (Hons) Russian and Soviet Studies with Law, University of Surrey
- Solicitor of England and Wales (admitted 1995)
- Maritime Law Short Course, Institute of Maritime Law, University of Southampton
- CIArb Diploma in International Commercial Arbitration, University of Sydney
- Fellowship of Chartered Institute of Arbitrators
- Mediation Skills Training Programme (CEDR)
- BIMCO Diploma Programmes (Time Charters, Bills of Lading and Agency)

Experience and Positions Held :

- Maritime solicitor from qualification (9 years), London
- In house counsel, chartering and operations (7 years), London, Ukraine and South Korea
- Consultant, shipping and international trade matters (8 years), London
- Arbitrator, Maritime and International Trade disputes (4 years)
- Council Member, London Shipping Law Centre
- Fellow, Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (FCIArb)
- Member, Baltic Exchange
- Aspiring Full Member, LMAA (2015-2020)
- Honorary Secretary, LMAA (from 2015)
- Full Member, LMAA (from 2020)

Operational and Secondment Experience :

- Netherlands (Amsterdam and Rotterdam)
- South Africa (Durban, Cape Town and Richard's Bay)
- South Korea (Seoul, Pohang, Ulsan and Pusan)
- Ukraine (Kiev, Donetsk, Donbass region, Azov Sea, Mariupol)

Particular Areas of Expertise :

Shipping and international trade contracts, carriage of goods, P&I, marine and yacht insurance
International commercial and maritime arbitration (particularly LMAA)

- sale, purchase and carriage of steel and iron ore cargoes
- voyage and time charters (fixture, operations and post-fixture), COAs, bills of lading
- laytime and demurrage
- Black Sea shipments
- carriage in ice conditions (particularly Azov Sea and Kerch Straits)
- yacht claims (especially YBDSA)

Languages : Russian, French, German